Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Bruce Lindholm, who will be retiring from the South Dakota Department of Transportation after serving almost 27 years; and,

Whereas, Bruce has devoted much of his life to the betterment of South Dakota's air, rail, and transportation systems, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Bruce has been a devoted servant to the people of South Dakota, including with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Department of Transportation; and,

Whereas, Bruce led the state's efforts at improving the state-owned rail infrastructure in South Dakota, as well as expanding rail service for the benefit of South Dakota shippers; and without his initiative, hard work and vision, South Dakota's rail infrastructure would not be what it is today; and,

Whereas, On July 29, 2016, Bruce is retiring to spend more time with his family, and with his dedication, honesty, and integrity that has set high standards for employees of the Department of Transportation, he will be missed by many friends and co-workers; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 29, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him best wishes for a long, healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
